About the Presenter:

Pastor Rick Warren, author of "The Purpose-Driven Life," reflects on his own crisis of purpose in the wake of his book's wild success. He explains his belief that God's intention is for each of us to use our talents and influence to do good.

Richard Warren is an American evangelical Christian pastor and author. ... He is also a bestselling author of many Christian books, including his guide to church ministry and evangelism, The Purpose Driven Church, which has spawned a series of conferences on Christian ministry and evangelism.

Questions to Ponder:

1. What was your response to the talk?
2. How do you respond to Rick's statement, "spiritual emptiness is a universal disease"?
3. Living vs existing. Thoughts?
4. What do you understand by stewardship?
5. What is your worldview?
6. What do you believe in?
7. How would you talk about the 'Good life'?
8. After reading Solomon, Rick says, "what this is saying is that the purpose of influence is to speak up for those who have no influence." Thoughts?
9. "What's in your hand?" What are you going to lay down so God can bring it to life? What are you going to do with what you've been given?"
10. What are you wired to do?
