About the Presenter:

Sr Hilda Scott is the current abbess at Jamberoo Abbey, Jamberoo in the Diocese of Wollongong. Sr Hilda is well-known for her contributions to Advent and Lenten publications, weekly segments on the Diocese of Wollongong's Journey Catholic Radio show and is a well-loved presenter at Australian Catholic Youth Festivals.

In this episode of "Wisdom from the Abbey", Sr Hilda asks us to consider where we see the face of God in our lives.

Questions to Ponder:

1. What did you feel when listening to Sr Hilda's talk?
2. When has your face been hidden from God?
3. What was your response to Jodie's story?
4. How do you feel when you hear your name being called by God, as Sr Hilda suggests? She suggests having a "Remember when ..." conversation with God.
5. "God is more obvious than we realise." Where are the places, and maybe unexpected places that you have found God?
6. If you had to share with someone where they might find God, what would you say?
7. "How long have you known that I am your God?" Where have been the challenging times in your life when you felt God not present.
8. What 'wisdom from the Abbey' has Sr Hilda's talk inspired in you for this week?

Further Support:
